

Die About It

Bad Wolves

Fading out into obscurity
Up to my eyes
With all the absurdity
Bullshit that comes out your mouth
Ain't concerning me
You're never hurting me
Looking foolish universally
Spreading disease with your pestilence
Playing your internet game
For the hell of it
Grasping at straws
To deem yourself relevant
With crystal clarity
Lacking the etiquette
I don't want to talk about your temperament
I don't want to come across, spittin' like a pessimist
We're bad friends? Nah, we just met the requisite
Crawling on glass, cause a motherfuckers delicate
Backstage, waiting on my settlement
In the meantime head up, I'll remain a gentleman
But we all know that you're just so negligent
Any given Sunday like the motherfucking testament

Fuck

You can't just leave well enough alone
Just look at
What it's done to you
We've seen enough of you

No one cares who it is that you blame today
Hope you find help you need
So your soul can change
I'm not your enemy
Just set yourself free

Flashback
Cause I need another minute
And the devil's on my back
Cocksucker can't just let it (go)
Always crying about your "credit"
But you have none
Even if you spend a lot to get it (oh)
Like a hate filled collision
With a taste for division
So it seems like your mission (so)
Watch a grown man cry about it
Try to tough guy about it
Motherfucker, die about it

Fuck

You can't just leave well enough alone

No one cares who it is that you blame today
So your soul can change

I'm not your enemy

No one cares who it is that you blame today
So your soul can change
I'm not your enemy

Why can't you look in my eyes
Why'd you believe in the lie
Ashes to ashes designed
And we're running outta time
They want to live in your mind
Caustic and buried alive
Breaking the bones in your spine
Get the fuck outta my sight

You can't just leave well enough alone
Die about it

No one cares who it is that you blame today
So your soul can change
I'm not your enemy
Just set yourself free

No one cares who it is that you blame today
So your soul can change
I'm not your enemy

Die about it
