

Gone

Bad Wolves

One day you're here
The next you're gone

Slip away through open doors
And you disappear like you were never born
You cry for help but no one hears
Leaving time and scars that never heal

And from the moment you wake
You're terrified
You're feeling dead but awake
Only to find
One day you're here
The next you're

Gone, gone
Gone without a trace
Just gone, gone
Remembered by a name
How long, long
Until the bottom breaks
And everything's erased
Just lost, lost
Today it's all OK
Then you close your eyes
And it's taken all away
One day you're here
The next you're gone

You can scream 'til you go mad
And lose yourself you'll never understand
Believe the lies that you drink in
As the sickness chokes you
Kills you from within

And from the moment you wake
You're terrified
Feeling dead but awake
Only to find
One day you're here
The next you're

Gone, gone
Gone without a trace
Just gone, gone
Remembered by a name
How long, long
Until the bottom breaks
And everything's erased
Just lost, lost
Today it's all OK
Then you close your eyes
And it's taken all away
One day you're here
The next you're gone

Slip away through open doors

And you disappear like you were never Born
Like you were never

Gone, gone
Gone without a trace
Just close your eyes
And it's taken all away
One day you're here
The next you're gone
Today it's all OK
Today it's all OK
One day you're here
The next you're gone
