

Been silent all along, engraved inside my walls
The words I write at night become phones that never call
Now I'm stuck in a phase that I just can't escape
Feel bitten on the face by a little social snake

Your spilling tea will never set you free
Now I'm in this cage, and you're in the courtroom with the key
Losing sanity, I'm fighting gravity
Oh, I can't get it out of my head

All night, all day, NDA on replay
In my head, what you said
"Give it time" so they say, but my hate, it just stays
In my head, what you said

Attention almost gone, getting hard to hold my tongue
These words become a song, and LA dreams move on Still stuck inside a phase that I just can't erase
I just can't feel my face, numb and I can't escape

Your spilling tea will never set you free
Now I'm in this cage, and you're in the courtroom with the key
Losing sanity, I'm fighting gravity
Oh, I can't get it out of my head

All night, all day, NDA on replay
In my head, what you said
"Give it time" so they say, but my hate, it just stays
In my head, what you said

I'm just gon' lose
Lose, stocking devil's dues
Stocking devil's dues

All night, all day, NDA on replay
In my head, what you said
"Give it time" so they say, but my hate, it just stays
In my head, what you said

I'm just gon' lose
Lose, stocking devil's dues
Stocking devil's dues
I'm just gon' lose
Lose
The devil's dues
