

Say It Again

Bad Wolves

Don't believe this shit, doesn't phase me
Like I'm 18 shots, feeling hazy
'Cause the more I'm told, seems the less I know
Searching for a little

Maybe
Today won't try to break me
I feel so fucked up lately
So I lose my mind
Better off this time
But I'll hold on to keep

Searching
I can't find it
I guess I'll just
Stick around, and

Say it, say it again
Don't pretend we still believe in something
We'll figure it out on the other side
Wonder what kind of spell I'm under
What the hell would I die for?
Sticking around just to say goodbye

I've been waiting here all my life
Sticking around just to say goodbye

Does it feel like running and chasing?
Got the bill, but no one can save me
'Cause the more I pray, seems the less I'm saved
Searching for a little

Maybe
Today won't try to break me
I'm so fucked, I'm shaking
So I lose my mind
Better off this time
But I'll hold on to keep

Searching
I can't find it
I guess I'll just
Stick around, and

Say it, say it again
Don't pretend we still believe in something
We'll figure it out on the other side
Wonder what kind of spell I'm under
What the hell would I die for?

Searching
I can't find it
I guess I'll just
Stick around, and

Say it, say it again

Don't pretend we still believe in something
What the hell would I die for?

Hope's not gone
Right my wrongs
And find a leap of faith to fall from
All along
Same old song
