

Set You On Fire

Bad Wolves

Run through walls
'Cause you know I can
Break my bones
Like you said you would again
And I'm not surprised that I found you here
Pumping hearts in a puddle of tears
Couldn't get, couldn't get away
I want to set you on fire

I want to set you on fire
Breathe in the smoke and expire
And watch you lose all your power
I won't forget
With the fear of God
I still stand tall
In the face of your mistakes
That you're running from
I want to set you on fire

When bloodshed called
You were all a lie
There's nothing here
Name cutting like a knife
And I'm not surprised
I'm you're only thrill
I love a death
Watch you disappear
Couldn't get, couldn't get away

I want to set you on fire
Breathe in the smoke and expire
And watch you lose all your power
I won't forget
With the fear of God
I still stand tall
In the face of your mistakes
That you're running from
I want to set you on fire

And I'm not surprised that I found you here
Set you on fire
Set you on fire
And I'm not surprised that I found you here
And I'm not surprised I'm your only thrill

Run through walls
'Cause you know I can
Break my bones
Like you said you would again

I want to set you on fire
Breathe in the smoke and expire
I won't forget
With the fear of God
I still stand tall

That you're running from
