

Haunting You

Badflower

I miss the way that you touch me, baby
I don't mean to bother your soul
But I'm still dead
I'm still dead

I think you need a reminder, honey
I just wanna make sure you know
That I'm still dead
I'm still dead

Can you feel the speeding up of your heartbeat, baby?
I'm about to finger your soul
Now, don't be mad
I'm still dead

Haunting you
You know that's all I do
My soul is stuck on you
I'm only haunting you
Haunting you
You know that's all I do
My soul is stuck on you
I'm only haunting

Has someone been in your bedroom, honey?
I don't mean to sniff all your clothes
But I'm still dead
I'm still dead

Tell me, who's the motherfucker beneath you, baby?
I'm about to step on his throat
I'll paint him red
'Cause I'm still dead

Haunting you
You know that's all I do
My soul is stuck on you
I'm only haunting you
Haunting you
Emotional abuse
There's no one else I choose
I'm only haunting

Only haunting you
You're never gonna escape me, baby
Follow you wherever you go
I watch you carry on like nothing's wrong, like nothing even happened
But something happened to me and it's scary because
I'm still dead
I'm still dead
That's me, baby
In every bang you hear at the front door
And the scratches in the attic
And the creaking in the floor

Haunting you

My soul is stuck on you
I'm only haunting you
Haunting you
There's no one else I'd choose
I'm only haunting you
