

Heroin

Badflower

She's in my head again
She knows where I have been
I'm going down that road again
Hmm...

She's in my bed again
She marks her fingerprints in my skin
I breathe her perfume in
It burns like heroin

Now she's in me
And I can't let her go!

And my bones are caving in
And she stole my faith again
And I wish you well
Oh, for the night
'Til you come again

She's in my veins again
But she knows that I'll bleed her out before I wake
Exhale her oxygen
She burns like heroin

Now she's in me
And I can't let her go!

And my bones are caving in
And she stole my faith again
And I wish you well
Oh, for the night

She's in my life again
But she won't ever win
And I wish you well
For the night
For the night

My bones are caving in
She stole my faith again
I wish you well
For the night
For the night
