

She Knows

Badflower

She's crying
I feel the tension's rising
Inside I'm scheming
Anything to stop her leaving
Does she know my secret?
Did someone leak it?
Sometimes I get scared
But I'm faithful, I swear

I've made mistakes
But I know I can change
Still I lay awake
'Cause I lied to her face
Does she know?
Does she know?

We made up
She still put on her makeup
And we go out dancing
She doesn't smile or call me handsome
She gives me silence
Her energy like violence
She loves me truly
But she looks right through me

I've made mistakes
But I know I can change
Still I lay awake
'Cause I lied to her face
Does she know?
Does she know?

And I wonder
How long I'll keep this from her
I hate these secrets
But as long as she believes it
We'll stay happy and together
I can't lie forever

I've made mistakes
And she knows I can't change
All the truths I've faked
When she cried
I caved

Now she knows
Now she knows
Now she knows
Now she knows
She knows, oh

Now she knows
Now she knows
Now she knows
Now she knows
Now she knows
