

False Gestures

Badlands

Preaching love instead of hate, you reject to start a war

Don't forget your holy crusades of violence when you kick down each other's doors

You forced people to believe in a fantasy for your own wealth and greed

Monk's fuckin' each other up the arse, while the innocents had to bleed

Chorus (2x):

I don't want your sympathy

Don't wanna be a victim of your charity

You never did no good and you'll never will

Preaching love while you rob and kill

A member of your church is always on Sunday present at the frontline

An outside appearance of a decent man, but he's the offender of a serious crime

The church is a gathering of criminals, perverts and child molesters

Using religion to cover up the truth - I won't believe your false gestures

Chorus (2x)
