Shake the Rollercoaster

Badly Drawn Boy

You might walk all over me in violet shoes While i shake the rollercoaster morning blues I cant get satisfied by being satisfied I opened up my mind to find it wasnt mine.

Then i look for someone else I can find no one else...like you

Do do do...bum ba dum

And when i needed something wasnt there. And then i pleeded on the silent share Only when it suits i can be on your side You call me up, i sing my song without a smile

Then i look for someone else I can find no one else...like you

Do do do
