

Ohh La La

Bag of Toys

Sitting in the sand like a stretched out A rubber band
Chillin to the music and the waves along the strand (it's a) oh, no they don't break now
I'm gonna sink I'm gonna Cut back and I'm burning, sweatin' so i'm turning and i'm hopping in the the water cuz the waves have got me yearning but it's cold now
hop out... heading to my towel where I blow another hour singing...

Ooh la la, said, Ooh la la, said a Ooh la la, la
I watch the girls and go
Ooh la la, said, Ooh la la, said a Ooh la la, la

She goes and cuts em' in, time again, her fist is out to do him in She's passing off another thing, tugging on that little string Pulling on this dream you see, Drinking in the scenery Sipping on the the thoughts of the pretty girls that i can see

Ooh la la, said, Ooh la la, said a Ooh la la, la
I watch the girls and go
Ooh la la, said, Ooh la la, said a Ooh la la, la

I'm happy just to be here now
Sharing this world with you all
The sky above the earth below
But if I had another round
I'd take it down and share it with you all

(SOLO AREA)

Digging through the cooler looking for the coldest brew (i) need another shot, i gotta lot-a time to kill
I think I'll Kick back
Re-lax
Fade back
It's gettin' late and now the
The sun is sinking low, I think i'll pack my STUFF and go so I'm headed home to get ready for some more Hit the shower now...
Hop out...
Heading to the bars to blow a few more hours singing...

Ooh la la, said, Ooh la la, said a Ooh la la, la
I watch the girls and go
Ooh la la, said, Ooh la la, said a Ooh la la, la

I'm happy just to be here now
Sharing this world with you all
The sky above the earth below
But if I had another round
I'd take it down and share it with you all...na, na, na...

Share it with you all...na, na, na...
