Gone Away

Bag Raiders

Each Time I'm away On a plain Gone for days You'll find Someone else Come along Take my place I try Every night To call you up Down the line Alright Never mind I'm all alone Doin' fine Because you're "gone gone gone away..." Because you're "gone gone gone away..." And love is "gone gone gone away..." "gone gone gone" And love is "gone gone gone" That's right She'd a tear Say goodnight Dry your eyes This time It's all so clear Don't look back No goodbyes We start Moving on Sliding in Where we belong I'm still Feeling like You're leaving me Hanging on Because you're "gone gone gone away..."

Because you're

"gone gone gone away..."

And love is

"gone gone gone away..."

"gone gone gone"

And love is

"gone gone gone"
