

How Long

Bag Raiders

Since you left, all my thoughts, turnin' blue, ohh, oh-oh
Since I've been here, forcing cars, hold me back, ooh
How long will your love take?
Hold my thoughts, push them through
'Cause I can't breathe your oxygen
Hold my thoughts, ohh, oh-oh
How long, how long?
How long will your love take? How long?
How long, how long?
Tell me is there something I just won't see?
How long, how long?
How long will your love take? How long?
How long, how long?
Can't you see I'm ready for this to be?

Since you left, all my thoughts, turnin' blue, ohh, oh-oh
Just want to pass your memory, what I recall, ooh
We used to be in colour
Hold my thoughts, push them through
'Cause I can't breathe your oxygen

Hold my thoughts, ohh, oh-oh
How long, how long?
How long will your love take? How long?
How long, how long?
Tell me is there something I just won't see?
How long, how long?
How long will your love take? How long?
How long, how long?
Can't you see I'm ready for this to be?
'Cause I can't breathe without your love
All these thoughts on my mind
Tell me how long until it's clear?
I want to break through
How long, how long?
How long will your love take? How long?
How long, how long?
Tell me is there something I just won't see?
How long, how long?
How long will your love take? How long?
How long, how long?
Can't you see I'm ready for this to be?
