

Into The Unkown

Bahamas

Don't know what I'm doing here
I'm just about to lose my head
Stand back or hand me a beer
And don't believe a word I said

I'll be fine in a minute
You wouldn't understand 'cause you never been in it
Something so hard to explain
I wouldn't put the pressure on your adolescent brain

I'm into the unknown
I'm into the unknown
I'm into the unknown
Ooh

Hold back your darkest thoughts
You only let me see your best
Tongue tied, or tied up in knots
Did I pass your meaningless test?

I'm into the unknown
Oh, I'm into the unknown
I'm into the unknown
Ooh

Time takes its time
You can't age bad wine
To know I'm yours, to know you're mine

I'm into the unknown
Oh, I'm into the unknown
I'm into the unknown
Ooh
