

Like A Wind

Bahamas

Be yourself I want no one else
And if you're sad
Just let it out

By your side and still you hide
Hide it all
Just let it out

Moved me like a wind
And shook me when you blew in
All winds someday change
Before they blow in cold and strange

Laugh it off, if you're feeling soft
Then let me in
And let it out

Moved me like a wind
And shook me when you blew in
All winds someday change
Before they blow in cold and strange
Searching for something to feel
Seems like it's anywhere but here
And now your eyes are open when we're kissing
Forever wondering what you might be missing
