

Destructive

Bahari

I like the feeling of feeling out of control
I don't like the feeling of chains on my soul
You should know so you don't take it personal
This shit's twisted, don't get it twisted

I'm destructive
Building castles 'til I knock 'em down to nothing
Down to nothing
I'm destructive
'Cause the fighting and the fucking's so seductive

I'm, I'm destructive
Light a match to this house just to watch it, watch it, watch it burn down
I'm destructive
There's something bad inside of me that wants to tear the things I love right to the ground, ground, ground, ground

I watch it burn
I hope I learn, I never learn
I watch it burn
I never learn

I can be explosive
Sometimes, I see red
I go zero to a hundred
Just for the thrill of it
You should know before you crawl into my bed
You can't fix it
Don't try to fix it

I'm destructive
Building castles 'til I knock 'em down to nothing
Down to nothing
I'm destructive
'Cause the fighting and the fucking's so seductive

I'm, I'm destructive
Light a match to this house just to watch it, watch it, watch it burn down
I'm destructive
There's something bad inside of me that wants to tear the things I love right to the ground, ground, ground, ground

I watch it burn
I hope I learn, I never learn
I watch it burn
I never learn

Why do I always hurt the ones I love?
Nobody, nobody, nobody can save me
Why do I always hurt the ones I love?
Nobody, nobody, nobody

I watch it burn
I hope I learn, I never learn
I watch it burn
I never learn
