

Yeah, you smooth
You ain't just all talk, you got the moves
Yeah, you put in work, you brought your tools
I know you ain't mine, you make it obvious
Don't worry, 'cause
Baby, how you move
You mess my head up with the things you do
Probably just for fun you see me calling you
I know you ain't mine so I won't fall in love

'Cause you just another dog-ass nigga
Yeah, I can never love a flawed-ass nigga, oh no
My friends say you ain't no good, yeah, they probably right
That's why I ain't tell 'em you gon' come over the night

'Cause every time I'm drunk (I just call your phone)
Any time I'm high (I text you all alone)
Yeah, when I'm going crazy (that's when you pull up, to give me that good st uff)
That's why I fuck with you

Yeah, you smooth
You ain't just all talk, you got the moves
Yeah, you put in work, you brought your tools
I know you ain't mine, you make it obvious
Don't worry, 'cause
Baby, how you move
You mess my head up with the things you do
Probably just for fun you see me calling you
I know you ain't mine so I won't fall in love

You're really good at what I do
But I can never fall for you
'Cause boy you just my fun thing
When I want that one thing, I
I don't need to really take this serious, no

'Cause every time I'm drunk (I just call your phone)
Any time I'm high (I text you all alone)
Yeah, when I'm going crazy (that's when you pull up, to give me that good st uff)
That's why I fuck with you

Yeah, you smooth
You ain't just all talk, you got the moves
Yeah, you put in work, you brought your tools
I know you ain't mine, you make it obvious
Don't worry, 'cause
Baby, how you move (it's all in how you move)
You mess my head up with the things you do
Probably just for fun you see me calling you
I know you ain't mine so I won't fall in love (I don't fall in love)
