

Anymore

Bailey Bryan

Your eyes are brown but the light by your bed turns 'em blue
Look what I've found, my own angel to lay with 'til two
And I can't see the future, if I could, man, I wouldn't want to 'Cause I'd rather pretend if I'm not gonna end up with you Still do what we do (Yeah)

I never felt like this
But I've been here before, saying
I never felt like this, so it's
Confusing, moving so fast
Losing love and getting it back
Falling for strangers and making 'em friends
Fine until time makes 'em strangers again, again
(Got me like, "Damn")

I don't ever wanna not know you anymore
I don't even know we're we going, what we're loving for All that I know is I swore
I wouldn't get hurt like before
Part of me wanna ghost to make sure
But I don't ever wanna not know you anymore

Thing is people change and I'll be okay if you walk away
But I hate the way there could be day, I could be okay with you walki
n' away
Gotta watch what I say
I know you know the truth but it's different to admit it to you, yeah
(Yeah, yeah)

I never felt like this
But I've been here before, saying
I never felt like this, so it's
Confusing, moving so fast
Losing love and getting it back
Falling for strangers and making 'em friends
Fine until time makes 'em strangers again, again
(Got me like, "Damn")

I don't ever wanna not know you anymore (Anymore)
I don't even know we're we going, what we're loving for (What we're l oving for)
All that I know is I swore (Is I swore)
I wouldn't get hurt like before (Like before)
Part of me wanna ghost to make sure (Yeah)
But I don't ever wanna not know you anymore

Ooh yeah
Oh, yeah, oh, yeah, yeah, yeah
I don't ever wanna not know you
