

Credits (Outro)

Bailey Bryan

I wrote you love songs
It was a movie
Don't know when you started
Seeing right through me
You had my back, I had your word
I'll be ok but this shit fuckin' hurts

I don't understand, I don't understand
Wasn't in the plan, we were making plans, baby
Thought we stood a chance so I took a chance
No going back now, no going back now

When the credits roll
Ain't no sequel, ain't no recap
Just new stories waiting to be told
It ain't no going back right now
Yea, I hope you know
You showed me that I could do it on my own
And now that's all that you getting credit for
You let the credits roll
Yea, you let the credits roll
It's over, yea, it's over...
