

Life Goes On

Bailey Bryan

Yeah, mmm

I try to hold on to these things that I don't need
Sometimes, it's too much and I start breaking

The sun comes up when stars keep falling
Even when I think it won't, yeah
I'll get up and fight another day

Got that head down
Feel it in your chest like what now
Giving it your best but you're wearing out
The world keeps spinning and your feet can't find the ground
Could be here with the out crowd
Sooner or later it will turn around
Even when it's right, even when it's wrong
Life goes on and on and on and o-o-on

Those green eyes, broke my heart and left me drowning
Thought I'd die

But the sun comes up when stars keep falling
Even when I think it won't, yeah
I'll get up and fight another day

Got that head down
Feel it in your chest like what now
Giving it your best but you're wearing out
The world keeps spinning and your feet can't find the ground
Could be here with the out crowd
Sooner or later it will turn around
Even when it's right, even when it's wrong
Life goes on and on and on and o-o-on
On and on and on and o-o-on, yeah, yeah

The sun comes up when stars keep falling
Life goes on and on and on, yeah
Morning comes, it can't take that away
Holding on when you keep falling
Changes that we gotta count on
We'll get up and fight another day

Up, down
And you're like what now?
But sooner or later it will turn around
Around, around

Got that head down
Feel it in your chest like what now
Giving it your best but you're wearing out
The world keeps spinning and your feet can't find the ground
Could be here with the out crowd
Sooner or later it will turn around
Even when it's right, even when it's wrong
Life goes on and on and on and o-o-on
On and on and on and o-o-on, yeah
On and on and o-o-on, yeah
