Ooh-oooh-oooh
Yeah

Lying when you told me you want the truth
Might end up alone with that attitude
We could talk all night
Ain't a single thing sound right
Said you'd never leave my side
Then you never see my side
That's why

Ooh, you a motherfucker, yeah, I see right through that
Ooh, but I fucking love you, hate the way I do, yeah
Always just making it hard, one way you take it too far
Ooh, you a motherfucker, yeah, I see right through that

Ooh, you a motherfucker, I can't believe I trusted you, no
All my niggas said you're trouble, but I thought I knew you
Blind to the facts, I could not see your flaws
Red color flags, I was shaking 'em off
Ooh, you a motherfucker, I wish I never knew you

You put the pain in champagne and it's shameless
I put my heart in your hands and you played it
Said you coming over, now you can't make it (What?)
All these fucking mind games, I can't take it (No)
All the stress that you caused and created (Yeah)
You put the bitch in bitch-made and I hate it
Bought you gemstones, but I'm the one that's jaded
I just wish I knew that

Ooh, you a motherfucker, yeah, I see right through that
Ooh, but I fucking love you, hate the way I do, yeah
Always just making it hard, one way you take it too far
Ooh, you a motherfucker, yeah, I see right through that

It's over, it's over
Can't love me like you supposed to
It's over, I told you
Can't come around, don't know you
Yeah, come to the crib at night when it's dark
You can pack up your shit and leave me a scar
It's a gun to the rib, a knife to the heart
But that's just who you are, yeah

Ooh, you a motherfucker, yeah, I see right through that
Ooh, but I fucking love you, hate the way I do, yeah
Always just making it hard, one way you take it too far
Ooh, you a motherfucker, yeah, I see right through that

I see right through that
I see right through that
