

play w/ me

Bailey Bryan

Man, I swear you got a radar
It goes off when I start movin' on
Could be a liar with a snake heart
But still an angel, I'm unstable when you turn me on So I'ma have to go and set you back to
"Do Not Disturb"
'Cause I can't relax, you ghost and then you have to Have the last word

So tell me why you thinkin' you can come around me
With all this different, always switching energy
It's childish and tiring to say the least
Then you act all innocent

Like ooh, you wanna ride the wave with me
Ooh, you wanna spend the day with me
Ooh, but then don't text me 'til it's time to fall asleep
Boy, you don't see
You play yourself when you play with
Ooh, you wanna ride the wave with me
Ooh, but then don't text me 'til it's time to fall asleep
Boy, you don't see
You play yourself when you play with me

Pretty boy, where did you come from?
Hit me like a sucker punch
Feeling like a bitch slap
Ever seen a bitch snap? Yeah
Well, you about to
Imma change my whole mood
Just like I told you

Tell me why you thinkin' you can come around me
With all this different, always switching energy
It's childish and tiring to say the least
That's why I don't trust these men

Like ooh, you wanna ride the wave with me
Ooh, but then don't text me 'til it's time to fall asleep
Boy, you don't see
You play yourself when you play with
Ooh, you wanna ride the wave with me
Ooh, but then don't text me 'til it's time to fall asleep
Boy, you don't see
You play yourself when you play with me

Got me in my feelings but I'll be alright
I know how to heal when dealin' with your type
Staring at the ceiling you'll be up at night
Coulna had a real one in your life

Tell me why you thinkin' you can come around me
With all this different, always switching energy
It's childish and tiring to say the least

That's why I don't trust these men

Like ooh, you wanna ride the wave with me
Ooh, you wanna spend the day with me
Ooh, but then don't text me 'til it's time to fall asleep
Boy, you don't see (ooh)
You play yourself when you play with
Ooh, you wanna ride the wave with me (yeah)
Ooh, you wanna spend the day with me
Ooh, but then don't text me 'til it's time to fall asleep
Boy, you don't see
You play yourself when you play with me

Got me in my feelings but I'll be alright
I know how to heal when dealing with your type
Staring at the ceiling you'll be up at night
Could've had a real one in your life
