RIP

Bailey Bryan

I think that you got a problem with change
I think that you might
Might get outgrew if you can't keep the pace
I'm sorry
I don't care it's

RIP to the old me
Knew me last year, you don't know me
Running from the expectations
I don't wanna keep on faking
RIP to the old me
Why you need to control me
Running from the expectations
Why you wanna keep on fakin?

These days
Making money make me sad
Been making love ain't chasing that
Ain't need nothing that I ain't have I got it
Don't you
Wait on me to take it back
I say I mean the way I act
You hate on me ok stay mad
I got it

RIP to the old me
Knew me last year, you don't know me
Running from the expectations
I don't wanna keep on faking
RIP to the old me
Why you need to control me
Running from the expectations
Why you wanna keep on fakin?

RIP to the old me
RIP to the old me

I used to think I'm not enough
I used to shrink to build you up
And now you miss me cuz I'm switching on you
Distancing myself I'm not who
You got me to think I was

RIP to the old me
Knew me last year you don't know me
Running from the expectations
I don't wanna keep on faking
RIP to the old me
Why you need to control me
Running from the expectations
Why you wanna keep on fakin?

RIP to the old me
Knew me last year you don't know me
Running from the expectations
I don't wanna keep on faking
RIP to the old me

Why you need to control me
Running from the expectations
Why you wanna keep on fakin?

(I used to think I'm not enough
I used to shrink to build you up
And now you miss me cuz I'm switching on you
Distancing myself I'm not who
You got me to think I was)
