

Trainwreck

Bailey Zimmerman

Left your tracks, runnin' through my front door, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
When you rolled by every night at nine
And you're telling me you wanna fix what's broken, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
Yet you're gone before the mornin' light

You sure know how to shake this house
And leave a man restless
"I love you", shouldn't leave your mouth
'Cause that's when things get reckless

'Cause when you're on my mind
I drink a little more, yeah, smoke a little more, yeah
It's always one last time
My engines on fire, burnin' these tires
Yeah, I'm already headed off of these two rails
Flyin' straight back to where we fell
I wanted the fast track but now I want you back
Since you left, I'm just a trainwreck

And all these problems, shoulda hit 'em head on Girl, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
Instead we let all our crazy drive
And all these memories are hittin' home harder
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Can't keep my eyes between the yellow lines

'Cause when you're on my mind
I drink a little more, yeah, smoke a little more, yeah
It's always one last time
My engines on fire, burnin' these tires
Yeah, I'm already headed off of these two rails
Flyin' straight back to where we fell
I wanted the fast track but now I want you back
Since you left, I'm a trainwreck

You sure know how to shake this house
Leavin' me restless (Restless)
"I love you", keeps runnin' its mouth
Keepin' us reckless

'Cause when you're on my mind
I drink a little more, yeah, smoke a little more, yeah
It's always one last time
My engines on fire, burnin' these tires

Up and down them county lines
Dodgin' every caution light
On my way back to you
Should've hit the brakes, should've used my mind
It's too late, I'm pullin' in your drive
Ain't no getting 'round it tonight
We're a trainwreck
