1st Time

Bakar

The first time
I saw the fire in your eyes
I'd never really been tongue-tied
Until I fell into you
By design
I'm not too good at openin' my mind
I used to let myself down all the time
Until I fell into you

And you illuminate this town
With your streetlight symphony
Yeah, you took this boy and you turned him 'round
Yeah, you made a man out of me, 'cause

You are, you are
You are, you are
You are, you are
You are, you are

You are, you are what I've been waitin' my whole life for, mm
You are, you are what I've been waitin' my whole life for, oh-oh, oh

The first time
I saw you in the sun, I nearly died
I told myself I'd have to sacrifice
That's when I fell into you
Lifeline
You threw me one but I was out my mind
I'd always come back with another lie
So now I'm tellin' the truth, yeah

And you illuminate this town
With your streetlight symphony
Yeah, you took this boy and you turned him 'round
Yeah, you made a man out of me, 'cause

You are, you are (Yeah)
You are, you are (Yeah, yeah)
You are, you are (Yeah)
You are, you are (Yeah, yeah)
'Cause you are, you are (What I've been waitin' my whole life for)
You are, you are
'Cause you are, you are (What I've been waitin' my whole life for)
You are, you are
