

Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh

I know the sunshine isn't promised, so I put it in my pocket
Winter turned me rotten, all these seasons I've forgotten
July, told me a lie
Can't be just crossed again, you was the straw that bent
Told you tonight wasn't the time
Said your goodbyes to me, it was a sight to see
But what did I expect? You said it with your chest
Your eyes wouldn't lie if you want them to
So what did I expect? You said it with your chest
Your eyes wouldn't cry if you want them to, oh

Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again
Wanna free my mind, wanna be outside
Wanna be alive, pray I wake up again, oh

Home, gotta get back home
Home is where I wanna be with you
I know, Lord knows I know
I'd walk through fire to get to you

Wonderin', wonderin' what you think
Are you runnin', runnin' from the system?
You can't fig-, can't figure the wisdom
You're searchin', searchin' for the wrong thing
Wonderin', wonderin' what you think
Are you runnin', runnin' from the system?
You're searchin', searchin' for the wrong thing
Wonderin', wonderin' what you think
Are you runnin', runnin' from the system?
You're searchin', searchin' for the wrong thing
Wonderin', wonderin' what you think
Are you runnin', runnin' from the system?
You're searchin', searchin' for the wrong thing
Searchin' for the wrong thing
