

Backseat

Bakar

Yeah, yeah
Uh, uh

I'm in the backseat, calling a taxi
One thing stays on my mind
Why you have to leave so soon?
I just found the best in you
Uh, uh, uh, uh
I know you're messy, it's alright to test me
One thing stays on my mind
I can't wait to tell you
Why you have to leave so soon?
Uh, uh, uh, uh

Those two weeks weren't enough, baby, come back here
We should talk it through some days, we can't compare
Those few days, girl, I swear it wasn't worth it
I said it, let's set our record straight
Where you going after today?
Don't leave here in a rush
I'm in a rut ever since your love
It's lovely and it's loud and it's so scary
It's scary to see me, baby

I'm in the backseat, calling a taxi
One thing stays on my mind
Why you have to leave so soon?
I just found the best in you
Uh, uh, uh, uh
I know you're messy, it's alright to test me
One thing stays on my mind
I can't wait to tell you
Why you have to leave so soon?
Uh, uh, uh, uh

I pray that you come back around
I hate the fact that I let you down, down
I'll take a hundred rounds to celebrate you
And I'm still waiting, how long should I wait?
Who saw you? So fearless
You got those brown-green eyes, baby, your world's so alive
I won't tell you twice
Take this ride with me, baby, there's just no time
World's wasted, I'm gone too
You should follow my light, there is not a lot of time
For the sun to shine, for the brown-green eyes
Baby, those brown-green eyes

I'm in the backseat, calling a taxi
One thing stays on my mind
Why you have to leave so soon?
I just found the best in you
Uh, uh, uh, uh
I know you're messy, it's alright to test me
One thing stays on my mind
I can't wait to tell you
Why you have to leave so soon?

Uh, uh, uh, uh
