Been A Minute

Bakar

It's been a minute since you saw me
I've been thinkin' about you solely
I've been drinkin', I've been poorly
I've been thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' you should call me
It's been a minute since you saw me
I've been thinkin' about you solely
I've been drinkin', I've been poorly
I've been thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' you should call me

One on one, tell me what you want, I've been gettin' drunk
Where were you? 'Quila in my cup, need to kill my lust
Always loved me, you from the jump, hidin' from the sun
See you once a month, lady luck left you in my dust

Where've you, where've you? Ain't seen you in time
Old news, old news, read between the lines
I'm just fearin' for the fear, call, might just pay the price
Could you buy a flight tonight?
Could you buy a flight to mine, yeah

It's been a minute since you saw me (It's been a minute since y ou saw me)
I've been thinkin' about you solely
I've been drinkin', I've been poorly
I've been thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' you should call me
It's been a minute since you saw me
I've been thinkin' about you solely
I've been drinkin', I've been poorly
I've been thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' you should call me

Ah-ah-ah...
