It's not that I don't love you
You know how much I do
And it's not that I found somebody
To take the place of you, yeah, yeah
But it's just how I feel within me
When you touch my hand, yeah, yeah
Had a fear that shakes my body
And I don't understand

So I'm leaving
This time, I'll pay this forward
I'm gonna walk away from love, yeah
Before love breaks my heart

You're clinging to me tighter
Tighter than you have before
But you know it's gonna take everything
To stop me walking out that door, yeah, yeah
Say you're wrong, that you go around me
Will let me go someday
So I'd rather to leave than holding on
Than pushing me away

So I'm leaving
This time, I'll pay this forward
I'm gonna walk away from love, yeah
Before love breaks my heart

[?] have to get my hands up
This don't mean have to put my hands up
Then you call me, you sounded like a [?]
