Hold on
I can taste the bleach
Wake up inside just feelin' it
And I try to look clean
I'll die for you, but you won't try for me
Hold on (I-I-I-I)
I can taste the bleach (I can taste the bleach)
I can taste the bleach
And I try to look clean
I'll die for you, but you won't try for me

I've been down so long, I need you on your toes
I was biking out back home, that's all I need
So the blame on my first breath just was on hold
Go clean myself up quick, I smell like bleach
Deep down, you know you told me lies
I washed myself last night
You know I never came here to fight
And you left for two weeks, left talkin' 'bout, I mean it
And my bredren saw you with him, can't unsee it
Hold on
Think it's time to save my own
Take my love and walk back home
Two-step to all my feelings
They will ask you to help my healin'
'Cause deep down, you know I mean it
Deep down, I'm bleedin' bleach, I feel at ease, I feel at peace now

Hold on
I can taste the bleach
Wake up inside just feelin' it
And I try to look clean
I'll die for you, but you won't try for me
Hold on (I-I-I-I)
I can taste the bleach (I can taste the bleach)
I can taste the bleach
And I try to look clean
I'll die for you, but you won't try for me

With you all night as far as the sun will shine
I feel alive with you outside
Alive, alive
What should I do just to feel your light? (I-I-I-I)
Bleed inside my conquered castle
UPS, my heart on parcel
Hopin' your stone eyes won't stunt my growth
I can taste the bleach, the bleach (Alive, alive, alive)

Hold on
I can taste the bleach
Wake up inside just feelin' it
And I try to look clean
I'll die for you, but you won't try for me
Hold on (I-I-I-I)
I can taste the bleach (I can taste the bleach)
I can taste the bleach
And I try to look clean

I'll die for you, but you won't try for me
