

Gotham

Bakar

I wanted everything
But a wedding ring
If I could just let them in
Bring me my medicine

Stuck in a daze
Stuck in my ways
Going insane today, away
And I'm fiending for change

Counting my steps within
Dancing with your blessing
One at a time
Still gasping for life
Looking for change

Let's raise hell
And God willing, God willing
We can still prevail
See them ships, see them go
And I seen 'em sail
Love's gone, love's dead
Yeah, love is stale
Hope we still prevail

I need to get my wings
You are my medicine
I wanted everything
But everything was negative
I need your sedative

Stuck in a daze
Stuck in my ways
Going insane today, away
And I'm fiending for change

Stuck in a daze
Stuck in my ways
Going insane today
Away and I'm fiending for change

And I'm looking for the runway (Stuck in a daze)
Oh, still going the wrong way (Stuck in my ways)
Hold it down when it feels like I'm going insane (Going insane today, away)
And I'm fiending for change

Sitting on a runway
Waiting for my wings to work
Need a one way ticket to a better place
Think I'm going clear if it doesn't rain
Yeah, I could have been him some day
But I couldn't wait my turn, I couldn't wait to learn
And now I'm swimming in my own lane
Got 'em singing like I'm Coldplay
Guess it worked anyway

We came from minimum wage

Now we're singing on stage
They want to slander my name
They want to take it away
But they can't, nah
Astaghfirullah

They offered me millions just to be myself
But the more I made then the more I failed at
Being who you want me to be
Such a shame you don't want me for me (Aw, man)

Offered me millions just to be myself
But the more I made then the more I failed at
Such a shame you don't want me for me
Fiending for change
Fiending for change
Still fiending for change

Gotham got me in a daze
Lord forgive me for my ways, aw man
