That girl didn't mean much to me
Head high, walking on down the street
That guy looks like he needs a break
'Cause he can't take more misery
For fuck's sake, she's meant to take his blues away
But that day she kicked him while he was down
'Cause that girl didn't mean much to me
Head high, walking on down the street
That guy looks like he needs a break
'Cause he can't take more misery
For fuck's sake, she's meant to take his blues away
But that day she kicked him while he was down

Good pussy, she's like kryptonite
She's got the whole gang on your fucking line
She said she's coming 'round to your crib tonight
She likes to party all night, party all night
She's got some attitude and she likes to fight
She'll get you white lines for the right price
She likes her vodka clean but she'll down a pint
And her body's mean, I ain't gonna lie

She's a real handful, she's a real handful
Real handful, she's a real handful
Real handful, she's a real handful
Real handful, she's a real handful
(She's a handful since school)
Real handful, she's a real handful
Real handful, she's a real handful
(She's a handful but it's cool)
Real handful, she's a real handful
Real handful, she's a real handful

He said he liked you, thought that you should know
Spent the whole night looking through his phone
She'll lead him on but he'll never get her home
She's that girl, should've never let her go

'Cause that boy didn't mean much to her
High heels, walking on down the street
But that guy took more than he could take
For fuck's sake, she kicked him while he was down
'Cause that boy didn't mean much to her
High heels, walking on down the street
But that guy took more than he could take
For fuck's sake, she kicked him while he was down
