I'm Done

Bakar

Why, why are you fake actin' like you 'bout to lay some shit do wn?

I'm only a mile away
I'm tryna get high today or do in my head
And come back home, we could find a way, hey, ayy-ayy
We only do it when Simon says, hey-ayy

And I'm done waitin' for your love to come home
Don't come home, no
And I'm done waitin' for your love to come home
Don't come home, no-no-no, no, no

When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so

It's all bad, sittin' here and waitin' for a call back
No communication, we should solve that A thousand conversations should've been had
A thousand thoughts are racin', and I might as well erase them

And I'm done waitin' for your love to come home
Don't come home, no
And I'm done waitin' for your love to come home
Don't come home, no-no-no, no, no

When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so
When you go, when you go, just say so

And I'm done waitin' for your love to come home
Don't come home, no
And I'm done waitin' for your love to come home
Don't come home, no-no-no, no, no
