

Halo

One in, one out, for your heart I can wait
One in, one out, 'fore your heart gone to shame
One in, one out, for your heart it bounces they don't play
One in, one out, for your heart I need names
One in a million, still stuck at these gates
One in, one out, if I start I ain't goin' away

Kick down the door, if I have to I will Pull on Js, I'm the jack to your Jill
Kicked all my habits, I'm done with these pills
Back from your love, tell your bouncers to chill
Back from my sea, I left to the hills
Right when you chose, had to ten toes
Now I'm back on my own, back on the road
While you're back on your phone, I need

Sooner or later I may
Sooner or later I change for the good
Sooner or later I hang
But sooner or later you make me feel good
Sooner or later I wait
Sooner or later I change for the good
Sooner or later I hang
But sooner or later you make me feel good
I need you at my door

In life, lyin' and found up my very eyes
Tryin' your hardest to stay inside
Tryin' my hardest to stay in eye
It's those cherry eyes do it for me
Cherry eyes, no way in vain
Cherry eyes, don't say my name
Cherry eyes, came to me
And I hope you still game

Sooner or later I may
Sooner or later I change for the good
Sooner or later I hang
But sooner or later you make me feel good
Sooner or later I wait
Sooner or later I change for the good
Sooner or later I hang
But sooner or later you make me feel good
I need you at my door
