

Right Here, For Now

Bakar

He's like everything you worked for
Came right back and now you're worth more
You've been goin' 'round in circles
I'm not who's the guy that hurt you
You know who to turn to

Stand on who you are
I know everything, you deserve more
I'm your superstar
Peddle me like I'm a dog
Peddle me like we're in love, girl

I can't wait 'til you're right here, yeah
I can't wait 'til you're right here, yeah

You know I could reimburse you
Paid the price for how I hurt you
Had to mention you're in first too
Girl, I miss your perfume
Know they wanna piss on our fire, I hope they burn too

Stand on who we are
We tried everything, ain't got much more
I'm your muse at heart
Peddle me like I'm your drug
Peddle me like we're in love, say-

I can't wait 'til you're right here (And I can't wait till she's right, say)
I can't wait 'til you're right here (Woo)
I can't wait 'til you're right here (And I can't wait till she's right here)

Five, four, three, two, one, say
I can't wait 'til you're right here, yeah
I can't wait another second anymore, say
I can't wait 'til you're right here
I can't wait another second anymore, say
I can't wait 'til you're right here
I can't wait until she's right here
I can't wait 'til you're right here
And I can't wait until she's right here

In the beginning I really thought it was, it was some kind of love
That it was longing or loving something
But I realized that it's maybe loving yourself
That "Halo" is self-love
That, that people are not gonna always be there for you
And you need to love yourself
You know, I mean, self-love
