

Runaway

Bakar

I wish things would change
But then again, I don't
'Cause if I stayed the same
Then I'd be part of the war
The molly change me in an instance
The money stayed the same
You took my heart, no interest
And nothin' feels the same

I might do a Dave Chappelle, put my ass on the floor
'Cause I nearly had it all, the world in my palm
But I really had enough, can you tell? Can you tell?
Yeah, I really had enough, can you tell? Can you tell?

Fall off for you, fall off for you
Fall off for you, fall off for you
Fall off for you, fall off for you
Fall off for you, fall off for you
Just to see you cry

I might do a Dave Chappelle, put my ass on the floor (Runaway)
'Cause I nearly had it all, the world in my palm (Runaway)
But I really had enough, can you tell? Can you tell? (Runaway)
Yeah, I really had enough, can you tell? Can you tell? (Runaway)

Let me run away, into outer space (Runaway)
Let me run, away, think I had enough (Runaway)
Let me run away, into outer space (Runaway)
Let me run, away, think I had enough (Runaway)

I might do a Dave Chappelle, put my ass on the floor
'Cause I nearly had it all, the world in my palm
But I really had enough, can you tell? Can you tell?
Yeah, I really had enough, can you tell? Can you tell?
Just to see you cry

Let me run away, into outer space (Runaway)
Let me run, away, think I had enough (Runaway)
Let me run away, into outer space (Runaway)
Let me run, away, think I had enough (Runaway)

Fall off for you, fall off for you
Fall off for you, fall off for you
Fall off for you, fall off for you
Fall off for you, fall off for you
Just to see you cry

Runaway, runaway, runaway, runaway
Runaway, runaway, runaway, runaway
Runaway
