

Something I Said

Bakar

Darling, was it something I said?
Cause it must have gone over my head
I was still lying in bed
Reading all the texts that you sent

Darling, was it something I said?
If I could I'd take it back in a sec
'Cause right now I'm kind of a mess
And right now I'm full of regrets

Darling, was it something I said?
Tried to make things right but you left
There's a river for the tears that you shed

You used to be my girl (be my girl)...

I stroke it 'cause I'm a artist
Look what I started
She rode me like I'm an R6
My girl's the fastest
She rode me, she rode me and then she parked it
I blow deep slowly and then I spark it
I fucked it
I keep on calling
You keep ignoring
My new thing is super boring
I keep on yawning
Calling to the morning
Tried to put it in gear now but I'm stalling

You used to be my girl (be my girl)...

Darling, was it something I said?
Cause it must have gone over my head
I was still lying in bed
Reading all the texts that you sent

Darling, was it something I said?
If I could I'd take it back in a sec
'Cause right now I'm kind of a mess
And right now I'm full of regrets

Darling, was it something I said?
