

LIGHTNING

Baker Boy

I'm a little bit of lightning
Caught up in the baseline
Make your speakers jump
(Jump jump jump ja ja jump jump jump)
I'm a little bit of lightning
Bottled up at light speed
You could never shine like that
Cause I'm a little bit of lightning

Talking too much, yeah
Hot to the touch, yeah
See me, filling my own cup
No I ain't even in a rush, yeah
I been in my own lane
Flying in ma own plane
Every single second my melody through your brain, yeah

Head on my goal, gold on my chain
All of your chatter got nothing to gain
Darra-ga djälthirri dhu live
But you reading it back-a-ward making it evil
None of its ego
Throwin' da paper tux-edo
Oh dey wanna get in for free - no !
Better not holla at me though

(I've been moving Fly)
I got haters hatin' too
(I'm Going high)
They hatin' everything we do yeah
(Going high)
So cover your eyes
I'mma strike in the same place twice

I'm a little bit of lightning
Caught up in the baseline
Make your speakers jump
(Jump jump jump ja ja jump jump jump)
I'm a little bit of lightning
Bottled up at light speed
You could never shine like that

I'm a little bit of lightning
Caught up in the baseline
Make your speakers jump
(Jump jump jump ja ja jump jump jump)
I'm a little bit of lightning
So bright I'll be blinding
You could never shine like that
Cause I'm a little bit of lightning

I'm a little bit of lightning
I'm a little bit of lightning
I'm a little bit of lightning
I'm a little bit of lightning

Every day nhumali bitjan
Look at yourself in the mirror

Gurda natja energy not enough to get to me
Look-at-my-heritage, it's not a test for me

I'm on a roll are you insane
All I be doin' is runnin' the bolt
Like a Greek god
Got da key card
Open the vault to the tea pod
And let you spill it
Better pray that Hera's breathin' down ya neck
Never sleep on ya dreams
Epiales nightmares
Life's full of frauds
Lotta traps on a floor
Put two and two together
I don't know what that (wooop) is for
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
You were my enemy
Cannot be crowned
I'm an acquaintance to all the stars
I'm up and away with da clouds
And I don't look down
I go boom baby

I'm a little bit of lightning
Caught up in the baseline
Make your speakers jump
(Jump jump jump ja ja jump jump jump)
I'm a little bit of lightning

I'm a little bit of lightning
I'm a little bit of lightning
Lightning

Why you always picking on me?
I've always been humble, can't you see?
Every day, it's the same routine
Look at yourself in the mirror
Don't speak negative, keep it clean
That bad energy ain't strong enough to reach me
Check my roots - energy not enough to get to me

Look-at-my-heritage, it's not a test for me

I'm on a roll are you insane
All I be doin' is runnin' the bolt
