

THICK SKIN

Baker Boy

Gimme that shivering feeling like ghosts
Now you see it clearer what they treat me like (Yo)
Invisible, hoping for a miracle boat
Cynical, hearing that ship sank low
We go bang, keep your iron fist
You never know when it's gonna happen like this Could be living like a king, then behind a fence
But wait, I'm stepping off the bench, like
I'ma manifest a fantasy
I can't express the fullness of my empathy
It's catastrophic, you should be ashamed
We all know, it's easier with ignorance to shut it out
A God complex
You can't rob this, you can't stop this
And we will rise
Gimme that, gimme that, gimme that keys to a new life

Wasn't for the fame, I just needed to survive
Not a silent soldier, my pigment is my pride
I'm like red dirt, gold chains, blak knight, thick skin
Red dirt, gold chains, thick skin, thick skin

Five-oh pull up and we gon' scatter
(We gon' scatter, we gon' scatter)
But you know, the only crime was our skin colour
(Our skin colour, colour)
Wrong place, wrong time, least we together
(Together, together, together)
Red dirt (Red dirt), gold chains (Gold chains), thick skin (Thick skin), thick skin

I'ma manifest a fantasy
I can't express the fullness of my empathy
It's catastrophic
Wait, wait, wait, wait
Nhätha bili nhuma dhu nhaburruny njäma
Wata-gum nhumali dhäruk nhaburrung dhurrwara-njur

Get out, look up, no chance, no luck
My fam' they hunt, I dance, they done
You can't ever put a price on us
No, you can't ever put a price on us

Wasn't for the fame, I just needed to survive
Not a silent soldier, my pigment is my pride
I'm like red dirt, gold chains, blak knight, thick skin
Red dirt, gold chains, thick skin, thick skin

I've fought through thick and thin
I can't be broken
I know where I come from
And we'll always sing our song
I've fought through thick and thin
I won't be broken
You can't tear my thick skin
We'll always sing our song
I've fought through thick and thin
I can't be broken
I know where I come from
And we'll always sing our song
I've fought through thick and thin
I won't be broken
You can't tear my thick skin
We'll always sing our song
I fall, I can, I know where I'm from
I won't be broken
You can't tear my thick skin
I know where we come from
I fought
Said we fought
Sing our song
Thick skin (Thick skin)
We'll always
