

Don't Wait

Bakermat

Not over yet
So roll a cigarette
And save it up for later
You are not my ex
While we're still in bed
Do us both a favor

It's only fun
Like Coke and rum
I'll take the blame when the morning comes
It should've worked
But you're such a flirt
You get off OK
Could've been much worse

So don't wait
No regrets
No excuses
Don't wait
When else you're gonna do it
I'm always so good
You're always so good
But you can't be good all the time

Might not be the best
When we're both half-dressed
We really feel the silence
It's so unwise
Your hands on my thighs
We wanna end it light

It's only fun
'Cause you fake and done
You can sneak away when the morning comes
It should've worked
But you're such a flirt
You get off OK
Could've been much worse

So don't wait
No regrets
No excuses
Don't wait
When else you're gonna do it
I'm always so good
You're always so good
But you can't be good all the time
