

Higher (Escalators)

Bakermat

I'm rising up
Like the morning sun
Had to burn some bridges yeah
But now I fear no one
Had to cut some ties
Had to make some sacrifices
Had to fix my life
Had to make my paradise

Now I
Feel like I just can't stop winning
I know I
Missed a lot in the beginning
But I swear
Now it feels like there's no limit
Every minute, I keep on going

Higher
I'm letting it ride
I'm getting the glide
I'm not even trying
Higher
I'm feeling the rise
Maintaining the grind
You can watch me climbing
Higher
I'm catching a wave
I'm getting away
I'm letting it take me
Higher
Every day
I wake up on escalators

I'm feeling better than I look
And I'm looking better than you ever could
So I'm feeling pretty good
Shoes looking butter like toast
While I float through your city like a ghost
Have 'em knocking on wood
Got a lotta luck
Got a lotta skills
Stay chill
Work a little hard
So I'm winning all the time
Ain't nobody really pressed round me
Cause my team real smooth
And the groove like sparkling

Now I
I know I
But I swear
Every minute, I keep on going

Higher

I'm letting it ride
I'm getting the glide
I'm not even trying
Higher
I'm feeling the rise
Maintaining the grind
Higher
I'm catching a wave
I'm getting away
I'm letting it take me
Higher
Every day
I wake up on escalators
I'm on escalators
I'm on escalators
