

Body Language

Balance and Composure

Don't you ever leave me out
Are these pieces of you?
You never show
Now I'll never know
You needed to Get high just to prove
You've got control
No one believes

The faces we put on our scars
And that they let me down
I'm fading for my flaws and scars
I'm taking the lying down
And I've got nothing left to prove

I've been left alone all my time spend in my head
Trying defending all my sins
And if you could only know my body language
We could hold Conversations
I've been patient

[?] make it out
All these things that we do
They help us grow
Just let me go
You needed me to Get clean just for you
We never spoke
We never address this true

The faces we put on our scars
And that they let me down
I'm fading for my flaws and scars
Is such a heavy crown
When they all got eyes on you

I've been left alone all my time spend in my head
Trying defending all my sins
And if you could only know my body language
We could hold conversations
I've been patient

You said you're running out
I don't want to believe it
You said you've grown it
You know I won't
You said I let you down
I don't want to believe it
I know I won't
I know I won't

I've been left alone all my time spend in my head
And if you could only know my body language

I've been left alone all my time spending my head
Trying defending all my sins
And if you could only know my body language
I've been patient
