

Run From Me

Balance and Composure

Never wanted to go
But it's the road that's calling
All the seasons
Never meant to hurt your feelings
That's the way that it goes
And I'll be seeing
All the changes
Coming to congratulate them

Then you say that you're just so happy for me
Though it's fake
'Cause I don't even remember feeling that way
And I don't even remember whatever you say

You depart from me now
Keep it away
We can't say it wasn't breaking
We were waiting for it
I'll pick up the pieces
And I stand alone now
Trying to save it all
But what's worth saving has been dead and broken
I can't help but feel nothing myself

We were building a home
Last I heard it was burning down to ashes
Swallowed up in all my absence
Couldn't see through the smoke
And it was suffocating
I heard you screaming out for me to hurt your demons

You depart from me now
Keep it away
We can't say what's been breaking
We were waiting for it
I'll pick up the pieces
And I stand alone now
Trying to save it all
But what's worth saving has been dead and broken
I can't help but feel nothing myself

[?] all the reasons to leave
Heaven or hell I'll be there always
I can't help the feelings darling
When I get back I'll handle all of this
[?] all the reasons you leave
Heaven or hell I'll be there always
I can't help the demons darling
When I get back I'll handle all of this
[?] all the reasons to leave
Heaven or hell I'll be there always

You depart from me now
Keep it away
We can't say it wasn't breaking
We were waiting for it
I'll pick up the pieces

And I stand alone now
Trying to save it all
But what's worth saving has been dead and broken
I can't help but feel nothing myself
