

Savior Mode

Balance and Composure

To the great unknown
Before you hit the road
Have you searched within, or inside?
I don't really want to make you sad
And I would hate it if I made you uncomfortable
I'm in savior mode
So I'll let you go

Swallowing my pride
You're out the door, so I'll spare you all my emotions this time
This time
Now that you might die
I find it selfish to pain you with wanting closure
'Cause it's closed, I know

Mr. Sacrifice
Make it barely known
But can it still remain inside?
When you leave for the voices calling you home
Will I grieve or will I miss anything at all?
I don't even have a photograph of us happy and healthy to hold on to
I'm in savior mode
So I'll let you go

Swallowing my pride
You're out the door, so I'll spare you all my emotions this time
This time
Now that you might die
I find it selfish to pain you with wanting closure
'Cause it's closed, I know

If there was a moment to lay it all down
(I'll stay, so quiet now)
It's now, right now
(I'll stay, so quiet now)
But I just can't see it coming out my mouth
(I'll stay, so quiet now)
Oh well
(I'll stay, so quiet now)
Oh well

Swallowing my pride
You're out the door, so I'll spare you all my emotions this time
This time
Now that you might die
I find it selfish to pain you with wanting closure
'Cause it's closed, I know
