

A False Charge

Balflare

I recollect a dream of a town far away
Strange lights surround the air, night and day
Candle flame, a child's face
Innocence, dancing around

Praying it'll last forever
Hide away all that's tearful
Illusions seen long time ago
Looking merry yet sorrowful

The roads are cover with fog
Spreading out in vision
The past follows us
Keep running to escape it

Even wild beasts and witches can't get away

Praying it'll last forever
Hide away all that's tearful
Illusions seen long time ago
Looking merry yet sorrowful

Real world keeps in moving on
But time has stopped in the town
No one cares to know the truth
Dancing and frolicking round and round
And it goes on...
