

Awakening

Balflare

Long winter's night has gone again.
And a new hope
This land i've always knows
Changing to a new time
Like the birds flying over the sea

As for me...i wander , i keep wandering
Why am i...looking for a place to settle this lonely soul?
And for what?

Before my eyes, came destiny, and i need to grab my luck
Lest it runs away
Hold on to we've got, so that...
There's a place in the sun for me

Now i see...life can be so infinite
Why am i...looking for a place to find happiness?
And for what?

Can you hear my name?
I want to shout it out, and to say
Do you know
Going straight ahead
The past is gone, no turning back
Hear i am!
Dawn always shines as it leaves the night
