

Downpour

Balflare

I have walked a lonesome road
From the dark days
Of my silent life
used to think that i was strong Enough to carry on
I tried so hard to move on
I stopped being afraid of you
Now i know the sun will shine
I am waiting for the dawn

Dawn of the glorious
Pray now for the silence
Of winter
Stars fall through silver rain
(It's) silent tears we left
Tears fall inside the dream
Our last day still gone so far
Star shines in all of us
Soon we will be free

Sing till the end
Your own songs of silence
We can not hearing
Sound in your mind
Think about the one thing
How much can pay for
It will be realized someday
Cling to your belief
Raise your game

It was just like yesterday
When you chose to leave
And i to stay
It was cold and heavy rain
And my heart felt heavy pain
I tried so hard to be good
I'm starting to believe myself
now i know the sun will shine
I am waiting for the dawn

Dawn of the glorious...
Sing till the end
You own songs of silence

Dawn of the glorious...
Sing till the end
You own songs of silence
