

End Of Time

Balflare

Look at the sky, a quiet moment
Visions floated before my mind
Close your eyes, hear the sounds flowing
I feel the breath of life

I believed it was everlasting
That's what i thought, naturally
Indefinite, is how time continues
There's no saving it

Oh! freedom calls me!
To the end of time and unlock the chains
Binding me let me fly away
Like a master of destiny

What can you see? an illusion?
like a mirror, showing back feeling the wind, in your face and in your hands
I feel the storm of life

I believe it is everlasting
That's what i know, naturally
Indefinite, is how time continues
Just rescue me!
