

Lost

Balflare

I believed that was eternity
I was not doubt it at all
That time when the Appearance crumbles
I fell on the knees to the ground

Why did you
Take away my light

If there is an angel
Whisper to me
Nothing has been lost
but rather gain treasure
Never surrender
Take away
Dispose the white flog
let me go

i notice but it was too late
When i realize it was out of sight
The void in time will leave a scar
I fell as i sneer at the sky

Why did you let me down

If there is an angel
Whisper to me
Nothing has been lost
but rather gain treasure
Never surrender
Take away
Dispose the white flog
let me go
