

Pray for Rosalia

Balflare

I could die for you a hundred times
I just want to show you
My love is forever
I would go to hell and back
If that'll give me your smile
I cherish more than ever

Lying in bed
Hurting with sorrow
Here all alone
Under the moonlight
Time goes by
You're still far away
I wanna wrap my arms
Around you

Just be there for me
And that'll give me strength
To go on living
Until tomorrow
Stay the way you are 'cuz I am here
To love and protect you
With all my being

Lying in bed
Hurting with sorrow
Here all alone
Under the moonlight
Time goes by
You're still far away
I wanna wrap my arms
Around you

Lay you down
On a bed of dreams
Whisper to you
The words of a love song
Oh baby...
Why not come along
I wanna wrap my arms
Around you
